Situated in the heart of Mahone Bay, South Shore, Nova Scotia, this renowned bed and breakfast, this 163-year- old lovingly preserved and restored old house. The house is historical, with state of the art plumbing.

Choose from four (4) individually themed rooms, Regency, Schooner, Chelsea and Nantucket and relax in comfort enjoying the facilities and all that the town has to offer.

So you have decided to stay with us in Mahone Bay, there is no shortage of activities for all ages. Make sure you take time to photograph The Three Churches - considered one of the 10 most iconic photos of Canada, stroll the streets and enjoy plenty of cafes, restaurants, and places to drink. Shopping is outstanding with a wide variety of shops.

When planning to stay in Mahone Bay, Lunenburg is only 10 minutes away by car and with Mahone Bay being so central then maybe plan to stay a few nights longer and use Mahone Bay as a base to explore the South Shore.
